Eastleigh Borough Council hereby certify that on 11th October 2021 the matter described in the First Schedule to this Certificate in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule to this Certificate and on the plan edged red attached to this Certificate would have been lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) for the following reason(s):

The Council is satisfied that the proposed siting of the mobile home shown hatched blue on the plan for ancillary accommodation for an elderly relative (not used independently from the main dwellinghouse) is lawful and does not amount to material change of use on the land.

Notes

1. This certificate is issued solely for the purpose of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
2. It certifies that the matters specified in the First Schedule taking place on the land described in the Second Schedule would have been lawful on the specified date and therefore would not have been liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.
3. This certificate applies only to the extent of the matters described in the First Schedule and to the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on the attached plan. Any matters which are materially different from those described or which relate to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.
4. The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations are began, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.
