

The image shows the exterior of a two-story white brick building housing the Jonathan Rees estate agent office. The ground floor has a large display window filled with property listings, a central entrance door with the number '100' above it, and a side door. A dark blue awning with 'Jonathan Rees' in white script covers the entrance. Above the awning, three signs are visible: two blue signs with 'wg Warner Goodman' and contact details, and a white sign with 'Residential Conveyancing Wills and Probate'. To the right, a blue door is labeled 'INSURANCE'. A small sign on the pavement reads 'Come in and find your next home here...'.
