Details of the pre-application advice received

I can advise that I have already undertaken a site visit and assessed the proposal. Unfortunately, the proposed first-floor front extension is unlikely to be supportable.

I accept this is an interesting idea however this area has a particularly strong character, the proposed development would be an overly prominent and incongruous feature that would be at odds with the appearance of the group of semi-detached properties of which the application property forms part.

As outlined above, I would not be in a position to support the application. In terms of progression, I would advise the following options:

- Receive a refusal. However, given that the immediate neighbour works as a planner for the authority, whether I am minded to recommend the application be permitted or refused, it has to be a committee item. The next committee meeting will be in 14 March 2023 so your client has to wait until mid-March for decision.
- Alternative, your client can withdraw the current application. Where a previous application has been withdrawn, no fee is payable for a single revised application as long as it is of the same character and on the same site as the earlier application, submitted by the same applicant, and it is submitted within 12 months of the original application received date. If you choose to withdraw and resubmit, the resubmission can be made via the planning portal and at the fee payment stage you can choose a fee exemption option for resubmissions.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

☒ Yes

☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of “agricultural tenant” in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
