Hi Alex,

F/23/95386 - 12 GOSLINGS TURNING, BURSLEDON

There are some trees on the northern boundary, but there is nothing significant in terms of amenity and character of the conservation area. We had initial concerns regarding the topography of the site (would there be a need for excavation due to the slope) and the RPAs of these trees, but given the size and quality of the trees, we do not think there will be a significant arboricultural impact.

Therefore, we raise no arboricultural objection to the proposal.

Kind regards,

Chris.
