Description

Please describe details of the proposed development or works including any change of use

To install Bishopstoke's War Memorial which was previously located at Bishopstoke Memorial Hall on the churchyard. The exact location is currently marked by a bench which has its back to the roadside and is in the central area of the open space. There would be a wall for memorial plaques where the bench is, and the old gravel path which runs from Oakbank across the churchyard to Riverside would be reinstated. On the opposite side of the path to the memorial wall would be a short stretch of block paving, re-using the existing blocks from the current memorial site, in the centre of which the War Memorial itself would be mounted on a plinth, similar to how it has been situated in front of the Memorial Hall for around 20 years.
