

A black and yellow striped speed bump is positioned on a paved road. The speed bump is a long, low, rectangular object with alternating black and yellow diagonal stripes. It is placed across the width of the road, which is paved with reddish-brown bricks. The speed bump is slightly raised above the ground level.

A close-up shot of a white bowl filled with a green salad, sitting on a dark, round, wicker-style table. The table is outdoors, with a blurred background of greenery and a building. A colorful placemat is under the bowl.
