Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

The existing garage is proposed to be converted into ancillary accommodation for the applicant's elderly father, enabling him to live in close proximity to and receive ongoing support from his family. The accommodation will comprise a bedroom/living area and an accessible bathroom (wet room) only.

The proposed accommodation is not intended to function as a separate or self-contained dwelling. No kitchen or cooking facilities will be provided, and all meals and day-to-day domestic activities will continue to be undertaken within the main house. The accommodation will remain wholly ancillary to the primary dwelling and will be occupied solely in connection with the residents of the main house.

All utility services, including water, electricity, heating, and drainage, will remain connected to and served by the existing dwelling, with no separate utility connections or meters proposed. The accommodation will share the same access arrangements and residential curtilage as the main house and will not operate independently from the principal residence.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

- ☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Site Visit

Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No
