Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Development site area of 0.2 hectares or below

Are there any priority habitats on or within 500m of your site?:

Yes

Can you provide evidence that no priority habitats will be impacted by the development?:

Yes

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

The site is less than 0.2 hectares. There is a SINC approximately 300m away (east) adjacent Dutton Lane. However, between the proposal site and the SINC are housing, railway bridge, industrial site, railway depots and the main railway lines to/from the Eastleigh Station, the change of use is significantly detached from the SINC by this distance. The proposal will not have any impact on the SINC.

Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.
