

Due to the importance of the property within the conservation area Councillors were concerned about the percentage increase in living accommodation exceeding the level permitted in the conservation area and the potential for subdivision. For these reasons Councillors asked the application to be referred to the Local Area Committee.