Subject: Eastleigh Town Council Planning Comments
Date: 09 August 2024 12:57:23

Good afternoon,

Please see comments on the below planning applications that were discussed at our committee meeting on the 01st August:

F/24/97687- Eastleigh Town Council OBJECTS to this application to increase from a permitted HMO with 6 bedrooms to 7 bedrooms as developed. Should the planning officer be minded to permit, Eastleigh Town Council would request that this application was considered by the ELAC and has made such a request to the appropriate Ward Councillors.

F/24/97665- Eastleigh Town Council has no objection to this application but supports the comments made by the Women's Institute.

F/24/97730 - Eastleigh Town Council OBJECTS to this application due to the stress placed on parking, the size of the space for the inhabitants as outside space sited does not mitigate smaller rooms especially in light of the comments made by the Environmental Health Officer.

F/24/97728 - Eastleigh Town Council OBJECTS to this application due to lack of consideration in the planning application of other methods of transport available to mitigate the requirement for 5 additional parking spaces. The council does not believe that clear need was established in the application process.

H/24/97695 - Eastleigh Town Council has no objection to this application.

F/24/97722 - Eastleigh Town Council has no objection to this application.

Kind regards,

Natasha Barfield | Assistant Town Clerk | Eastleigh Town Council | 023 8212 1595
